HAMBURG INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION CENTER

The Cliffs of Arbitration: Lessons from the World of Specialised Arbitrations?

Monday, 22 March 2021, 5.15 p.m. to 6.15 p.m.

International arbitration has developed a broad range of regional and sector-specific specialisations. Navigating the waters of specialised dispute resolution may have its perils but also offers valuable lessons for arbitrations in general.

With its rich history of international trade and arbitration, Hamburg is home to arbitration-friendly courts and many specialised arbitral institutions with the latter gathered under the roof of the Hamburg International Arbitration Center (HIAC). With this event, we want to tap into this accumulated knowledge and bring together experts from these different institutions. Our panellists will share their insights about treacherous cliffs in their respective waters, how arbitral rules, tribunals and courts have addressed them and discuss what valuable guidance may be derived from this for everyone involved in international dispute resolution.

Arbitration in Hamburg

As an old merchant city, Hamburg has a long and rich history of international trade and arbitration. It is home to almost a dozen arbitral institutions of general and specialised jurisdiction.

With the Hamburg International Arbitration Center (HIAC), Hamburg moreover features a central point of contact for all matters related to arbitration in Hamburg and superb hearing facilities. Additionally, the website www.dispute-resolution-hamburg.com, an initiative by the association Rechtsstandort Hamburg e.V., lists arbitrators and provides easy access to practical information relating to conducting arbitrations in Hamburg.

The HIAC is located at the Hamburg Chamber of Commerce which administers arbitrations based on the rules of various institutions, including the Court of Arbitration of the Hamburg Chamber of Commerce, the Chinese European Arbitration Centre (CEAC), the European-Latinamerican Arbitration Center (ELArb) the Logistics Court of Arbitration, and the Arbitration Board of the German Coffee Association. It is also the appointing authority for ad hoc arbitrations pursuant to the Hamburg Friendly Arbitration.

In addition, courts of arbitration of the German Grain Traders Association (VdG) and of the German Association of Wholesale Traders in oils, fats and oil resources e. V. (GROFOR) are located here. The Hamburg Chamber of Commerce is also well connected to the other arbitration institutions in Hamburg, such as the German Maritime Arbitration Association (GMAA).

The HIAC was created based on the joint initiative of the Hamburg Chamber of Commerce and the association Rechtsstandort Hamburg e.V. which promotes Hamburg as a centre for law.
